Articles of Association
of
The Surrey Federation of Women's Institutes

Values of the Women's Institute Organisation

1. The Women's Institute organisation is based on the ideals of fellowship, truth, tolerance and justice. With its original roots in rural and agricultural communities, it now embraces the interests of women in both rural and urban communities. All women who are interested in the values and purposes of the Women's Institute organisation may join, no matter what their views on religion or politics may be. The organisation is non-sectarian and non-party political. This does not prevent Women's Institutes from concerning themselves with matters of political and religious significance, provided the views and rights of minorities are respected and provided the organisation is never used for party-political or sectarian purposes. Women's Institutes are charitable and everything they do must be consistent with that special legal status.

Objects of the Women's Institute Organisation

2. The main purposes of the Women's Institute organisation are:
 - (a) to advance the education of women and girls for the public benefit in all areas including (without limitation):
 - i. local, national and international issues of political and social importance;
 - ii. music, drama and other cultural subjects; and

- iii. all branches of agriculture, crafts, home economics, science, health and social welfare;
 - (b) to promote sustainable development for the public benefit by:
 - i. educating people in the preservation, conservation and protection of the environment and the prudent use of natural resources; and
 - ii. promoting sustainable means of achieving economic growth and regeneration;
 - (c) to advance health for the public benefit; and
 - (d) to advance citizenship for the public benefit by the promotion of civic responsibility and volunteering.
- 3. In Article 2 “sustainable development” means development which meets the needs of the present generation without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their needs.
- 4. The Women’s Institute organisation seeks to give women the opportunity of working together through the Women’s Institute organisation in their communities, of developing their capacity and skills, and of putting into practice those ideals for which the Women’s Institute organisation stands.

 - (a) this shall not prevent the Federation from supporting and benefiting Women's Institutes in furtherance of its objects; and

A Trustee shall be treated as receiving remuneration or other benefits in money or money's worth from the Federation if they or a person Connected to them receives such remuneration or benefit, but not otherwise.

Limited Liability

8. The liability of the members of the Federation is limited.
9. Every member of the Federation undertakes to contribute a sum, not exceeding £1, to the assets of the Federation if it is wound up during their membership, or within one year afterwards, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Federation contracted before the time when membership ceased, for the costs, charges and expenses of winding-up the Federation, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

Membership of the Federation

Members

10. Membership of the Federation shall consist of:
 - (a) Delegates appointed in accordance with Article 11 below; and
 - (b) the Trustees of the Federation.
11. Each Women's Institute in the Federation shall appoint an equal number of Delegates (the number being determined from time to time by the Council) to be its members of the Federation and to represent the Women's Institute.
 - (a) The names of the Delegates, the names of the Women's Institute and the fact that they are its representatives shall be entered in the register of members.
 - (b) Any Women's Institute may replace a Delegate by notice in writing to the Federation without it being necessary for the Delegate to give notice to the Federation of her resignation. Replacement takes effect when the notice from the Women's Institute is received at the Office or by the Secretary (whichever is earlier).
12. A Women's Institute in the Federation may, with the approval of the National Federation given in accordance with the WI Constitution, withdraw its Delegates in order to appoint Delegates to a neighbouring Federation of easier access and a Women's Institute outside the Federation may similarly appoint Delegates to the Federation.

Termination of Membership

13. The membership of a Delegate and the right of a Women's Institute to appoint a Delegate terminates if the Women's Institute is closed or suspended in accordance with the WI Constitution but if a suspended Women's Institute is revived so is its right to appoint a Delegate.
14. The membership of a Trustee terminates on her ceasing to be a member of the Board of Trustees.

Subscriptions

15. The Federation shall levy subscriptions from Women's Institutes in the Federation at such rates and at such times as the National Federation may determine in accordance with the Articles of Association of the National Federation.

Members' Meetings

Federation Council

16. The members of the Federation are known as the Council. Meetings of the Council are the equivalent of general meetings of the Federation.

Annual General Meetings

17. Subject to Article 18, the Federation must hold an Annual General Meeting once in each calendar year in addition to any other meetings in that year.
 - (a) Not more than fifteen months may elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting and the next.
 - (b) The Board of Trustees will decide where and when an Annual General Meeting will be held.
18. The Board of Trustees may, at their discretion, suspend the requirement to hold an Annual General Meeting within the time limits specified in Article 17 for a particular calendar year

(holding it later in the calendar year, or not holding it in a particular calendar year), if they consider that this is necessary for the safety of the attendees or the public, or to comply with law or regulation. In this case they must make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with any business ordinarily dealt with at the Annual General Meeting.

Other general meetings

19. The Board of Trustees may call general meetings at any time and a general meeting must be called in accordance with the Act on a requisition by five per cent of the members of the Federation.

Notice of general meetings

20. At least 14 clear days' notice of general meetings (including Annual General Meetings) must be given but shorter notice may be given if so agreed by at least ninety per cent of the members entitled to attend and vote.

Contents of notice

21. Notice for any general meeting must specify the day, time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted.
 - (a) A notice of an Annual General Meeting must specify that it is an Annual General Meeting.
 - (b) If the general meeting is to be a Hybrid Meeting, the notice must also contain the information specified in Article 35(b). 1.1.1(b)
 - (c) If a special resolution is to be proposed, the notice must contain a statement to that effect and set out the precise wording of the special resolution.
 - (d) If the Federation gives an electronic address in a notice calling a meeting, it will be deemed to have agreed that any document or information relating to proceedings at the meeting may be sent by electronic means to that address (subject to any conditions or limitations specified in the notice).

- (e) In every notice calling a general meeting there must appear with reasonable prominence a statement informing members of the Federation of their rights to appoint another person as their proxy at general meetings.

Service of Notice

- 22. Notice of general meetings must be given to every Delegate, every Trustee, every WI Adviser and the auditors (if any) of the Federation.

Failure to give Notice

- 23. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice will not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.

Attendance

- 24. The following persons are entitled to attend and speak at general meetings:
 - (a) Delegates and their proxies;
 - (b) Trustees and their proxies;
 - (c) WI Advisers; and
 - (d) any other person who may be given the right of attendance by the Board of Trustees.

Submission of resolutions

- 25. Women's Institutes in the Federation, the Board of Trustees or individual Trustees may submit resolutions in accordance with the bye-laws of the Federation.

Quorum

26. No business may be transacted at a meeting unless a quorum is present. A quorum is present when one fifth of the Delegates and Trustees are present (in person or by proxy, with “present” including for the avoidance of doubt present by Remote Attendance).
27. If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting then:
 - (a) if the meeting was called on the requisition of members of the Federation it will be dissolved;
 - (b) if the meeting was called by the Board of Trustees it must be adjourned to such other day, time and place as the Board of Trustees may decide. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present (in person or by proxy) and entitled to vote will be a quorum.

Participation in general meetings

28. A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
29. A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:
 - (a) that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting; and
 - (b) that person’s vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
30. The Trustees may, in their discretion, make such arrangements as they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it. Such arrangements may, without limitation, include arrangements involving telephone or video conferencing and/or use of electronic facilities and/or electronic platforms.

31. In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.
32. Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

Hybrid Meetings and Remote Attendance

33. A Hybrid Meeting is a general meeting where the Trustees have made arrangements to enable those attending the meeting to exercise their rights to speak and/or vote at the meeting either by physical attendance at the place specified in the notice of the meeting (“the Primary Location”) or by Remote Attendance.
34. The Trustees may (but shall be under no obligation to) make such arrangements for Remote Attendance at a Hybrid Meeting as they may (subject to the requirements of the Companies Acts) decide. The entitlement of any person to attend a general meeting by Remote Attendance shall be subject to such arrangements.
35. In the case of a Hybrid Meeting:
 - (a) the provisions of the Articles shall be treated as modified to permit such arrangements and in particular:
 - (i) a person attending a general meeting by Remote Attendance shall be treated as being present and/or present in person at the meeting for the purposes of the Articles, including without limitation the provisions of the Articles relating to the quorum for the meeting and rights to vote at the meeting, unless the Articles expressly provide to the contrary; and

- (ii) references in these Articles to the place of a general meeting shall be treated as references to the Primary Location;
 - (b) the Trustees must ensure that the notice of a Hybrid Meeting includes:
 - (iii) details of the Primary Location; and
 - (iv) details of the arrangements for Remote Attendance and any restrictions on Remote Attendance;
 - (c) the Trustees may decide:
 - (v) how those attending by Remote Attendance may communicate with the meeting for example by communicating with the chair in writing using an electronic platform;
 - (vi) how those attending by Remote Attendance may vote;
 - (d) the arrangements for Remote Attendance may be changed or withdrawn in advance of the meeting by the Trustees, who must give the members as much notice as practicable of the change;
 - (e) in the event of technical failure or other technical issues during the meeting (including, for example, difficulties in establishing whether the meeting is quorate) the chair of the meeting may adjust or withdraw the arrangements for Remote Attendance and/or adjourn the meeting if in her view this is necessary or expedient for the efficient conduct of the meeting;
36. Under no circumstances shall the inability of one or more persons (being entitled to do so) to access, or continue to access, the technology being used for Remote Attendance at the meeting (despite adequate technology being made available by the Federation) affect the validity of the meeting or any business conducted at the meeting, provided a quorum is present at the meeting.

Chairmanship

37. General meetings shall be chaired by the following, in the order of priority set out below:
 - (a) the Chairman if she is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act;
 - (b) any Vice Chairman present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the meeting and willing to act (and if there is more than one Vice Chairman so present and willing the other Trustees present shall decide which of them shall chair the meeting);
 - (c) any other Trustee elected by the Trustees present, and if there is only one Trustee present and willing to act, she shall be chairman of the meeting.
38. If no Trustee is willing to act as chairman, or if no Trustee is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chairman (and for the avoidance of doubt a proxy who is not a member of the Federation may not be appointed as chairman under this Article 38).

Adjournment

39. The chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
40. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice must be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it is not necessary to give any such notice.

Postponement

41. If, after the sending of notice of a general meeting, but before the meeting is held or, after the adjournment of a general meeting but before the adjourned meeting is held (whether or not notice of the adjourned meeting is required), the Trustees consider that they should not proceed with the general meeting on the date or at the time or place specified, on the grounds of the safety of the attendees or the public, or to comply with law or regulation, they may postpone the general meeting to another date and time and/or place. When a general meeting is so postponed, notice of the date, time and place of the postponed meeting shall be given in such manner as the Trustees may, in their absolute discretion, determine. Notice of the business to be transacted at such postponed meeting shall not be required. No business shall be transacted at any postponed meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had it not been postponed.
42. If a general meeting is postponed in accordance with Article 41, the appointment of a proxy will be valid if it is delivered to the Federation before the commencement of the postponed meeting.

Voting Procedures

43. Subject to the provisions of the Act a resolution shall be passed at a general meeting of the Federation by simple majority of the votes cast.
44. A resolution put to the vote of a meeting will be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a ballot is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a ballot may be demanded:
 - (a) by the chairman of the meeting;
 - (b) by five persons having the right to vote on the resolution at the meeting; or

- (c) by persons representing not less than ten per cent of the rights to vote on the resolution.
45. Unless a ballot is duly demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
 46. The demand for a ballot may be withdrawn before the ballot is taken, but only with the consent of the chairman of the meeting. If a demand for a ballot is withdrawn the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made is valid.
 47. A ballot must be taken as the chairman of the meeting directs and she may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the ballot. The result of the ballot is deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.
 48. A ballot demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment must be taken forthwith. A ballot demanded on any other question may be taken forthwith or at such time and place as the chairman of the meeting directs provided this is within thirty days of the ballot being demanded.
 49. No notice need be given of a ballot not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven clear days' notice must be given specifying the time and place at which the ballot is to be taken.
 50. No accidental irregularity in the qualification of those attending the meeting or the procedures at the meeting (including voting in a ballot) will invalidate the proceedings.

Votes of Members

51. No Delegate may vote on behalf of a Women's Institute at any general meeting if that Women's Institute has failed to make any payment to the Federation which it should have made.
52. Every vote cast at a meeting or adjourned meeting is valid unless an objection to the qualification of a voter is raised and allowed at the meeting or adjourned meeting. Any such objection is to be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

Proxies

53. A member of the Federation may appoint another person as her proxy to exercise all or any of her rights to attend and speak and vote at a general meeting of the Federation.
 - (a) The appointment of a proxy (and any revocation of an appointment) must be in writing and delivered to the Federation before the commencement of the meeting.
 - (b) In the case of a Delegate the appointment of a proxy (and any revocation of an appointment) may be signed or authenticated by or on behalf of the Delegate or the Women's Institute she represents, and in the event of a conflict between an appointment by a Delegate and an appointment by the Women's Institute she represents the appointment by the Women's Institute shall take priority.
 - (c) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy appointment has been delivered to the Federation by or on behalf of that person. If the person casts a vote in such circumstances, any vote cast by the proxy appointed under the proxy appointment is not valid.

Federation's Fares Pool

54. The cost of fares of Delegates attending meetings of the Federation Council may be shared by the Federation and Women's Institutes in the Federation if the Board of Trustees so decides.

Board of Trustees

Number of Trustees

55. Unless otherwise decided by resolution of the Council the Board of Trustees shall consist of at least eight and not more than fifteen elected Trustees who shall be elected in accordance with Articles 56 to 59 below. The elected Trustees may co-opt additional members (up to one third of their own number) in accordance with Article 6161.
56. Any member of a Women's Institute which appoints Delegates to the Federation, who has paid her subscription for the current year, may be elected or co-opted as a Trustee provided that she is not a member of the Board of Trustees of another Federation and provided she is not an employee of the Federation.

Appointment of Trustees

57. The elected Trustees shall be elected by a vote conducted by post, or by such other means (including electronic means) as the Board of Trustees may determine, with each Women's Institute having one vote. The vote shall be conducted prior to each Annual General Meeting and the results of the vote shall be announced prior to or at the Annual General Meeting.
58. No person may be elected or re-elected as an elected Trustee unless she has been nominated by a Trustee or by a Women's Institute in the Federation, both of whom may submit nominations up to the number of places to be filled.
59. The Secretary shall invite Women's Institutes in the Federation and Trustees to submit nominations specifying the date by which they must be received by the Secretary. All nominations must be in writing together with the name of the Women's Institute or Trustee submitting the nomination. Following receipt of a nomination, the Secretary will seek the nominee's consent in writing. For the avoidance of doubt this process may take place by such electronic means as are permitted by the Trustees or the Secretary.

60. The Board of Trustees may appoint a person to fill any vacancy among the elected Trustees. The Trustee so appointed will be treated as an elected Trustee for the purposes of Articles 55 and 61 and will hold office until the next election.
61. The elected Trustees may co-opt one or more additional Trustees to hold office until the next election provided that the Trustees so co-opted do not exceed one third of the number of elected Trustees.

Term of Office

62. All Trustees must retire from office after the first Annual General Meeting and after every subsequent alternate Annual General Meeting as soon as the results of the election of the Trustees are formally announced by the Secretary (or, if the announcement is made prior to an Annual General Meeting in accordance with Article 587, at the time specified in that announcement (if any)).
63. Subject as aforesaid and to any bye-laws of the Federation made under Article 90 restricting eligibility, a Trustee who retires at an Annual General Meeting (or in accordance with Article 62) may, if willing to act, be re-elected. If she is not re-elected, she will retain office until the time specified in Article 62. The bye-laws may not include restrictions on the maximum term of office that may be served by a Trustee.

Disqualification and Removal of Trustees

64. The office of a Trustee shall be vacated if:
 - (a) she ceases to be a company director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or she becomes prohibited by law from being a director; or
 - (b) she is disqualified under the Charities Act 2011 from acting as a trustee of a charity; or
 - (c) she becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with her creditors generally; or

- (d) the Trustees reasonably believe she has become physically or mentally incapable of managing her own affairs and they resolve that she be removed from office; or
- (e) she resigns her office by notice to the Federation; or
- (f) she ceases to be a member of a Women's Institute in the Federation; or
- (g) she fails to attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees for three consecutive meetings unless the Trustees otherwise decide.

Officers

- 65. The honorary officers of the Federation shall be a Chairman, a Treasurer and one or more Vice Chairmen (up to three in number).
- 66. The Board of Trustees shall elect the Chairman, Vice Chairmen and Treasurer from its members and may at any time terminate the appointment of any office holder. Unless their office is terminated by the Board of Trustees the Chairman, Vice Chairmen and Treasurer will hold office until the close of the Annual General Meeting in the year following the year of their election (or, if sooner, when they cease to be Trustee).
- 67. The Board of Trustees may appoint (and may remove) either:
 - (a) a Secretary who is a Trustee; or
 - (b) a Secretary who is not a Trustee and who may be appointed on such terms and conditions including remuneration as the Board of Trustees thinks fit.
- 68. If there is no Secretary:
 - (a) anything authorised or required to be given or sent to, or served on, the Federation by being sent to its Secretary may be given or sent to, or served on, the Federation itself, and if addressed to the Secretary shall be treated as addressed to Federation; and

- (b) anything else required or authorised to be done by or to the Secretary of the Federation may be done by or to a Trustee, or a person authorised generally or specifically in that behalf by the Trustees.

Powers of Board of Trustees

- 69. Subject to the provisions of the Act and the Articles, the business of the Federation shall be managed by the Board of Trustees who may exercise all the powers of the Federation.
 - (a) The Board of Trustees are the charity trustees of the Federation as defined in the Charities Act 2011.
 - (b) No alteration of the Articles shall invalidate any prior act of the Board of Trustees which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made.
 - (c) The powers given by this regulation shall not be limited by any special power given to the Board of Trustees by these Articles and a meeting of the Board of Trustees at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Board of Trustees.
- 70. The Board of Trustees may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint any person to be the agent of the Federation for such purposes and on such conditions as they determine.

Delegation of Trustees' Powers

- 71. The Board of Trustees may delegate any of its powers or the implementation of any of its resolutions to any sub-committee consisting of such persons as the Board of Trustees may determine.
 - (a) The resolution making that delegation shall specify the financial limits within which any committee shall function.
 - (b) The chairman of each sub-committee, or her appointed deputy, shall report the proceedings of each meeting of the sub-committee to the Board of Trustees.

- (c) Any decision taken by any such committee which relates to the expenditure of funds must first be approved by the Board of Trustees before it takes effect.
- (d) All delegations under this Article shall be revocable at any time.
- (e) The Board of Trustees may make such regulations and impose such terms and conditions and give such mandates to any such sub-committee or sub-committees as it may from time to time think fit.
- (f) The meetings and proceedings of any sub-committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles regulating the meetings and proceedings of the Board of Trustees so far as the same are applicable and are not superseded by any regulations made by the Board of Trustees.

Trustees' Expenses

72. The Trustees may be paid all reasonable travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance at meetings of the Board of Trustees, sub-committees or general meetings or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties.

Proceedings of Trustees

73. Subject to the provisions of the Articles, the Board of Trustees may regulate their proceedings as they think fit.
- (a) Three Trustees may, and the Secretary at the request of three Trustees must, call a meeting of the Board of Trustees.
 - (b) Notice of every meeting of the Board of Trustees stating the general particulars of all business to be considered at the meeting shall be given to each Trustee at least seven clear days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and Public Holidays) before the meeting unless urgent circumstances require shorter notice. Notice may be given by hand, by post or by electronic means (including by telephone) and need not be in writing.

- (c) The proceedings of any meeting shall not be invalidated by any irregularity in respect of the notice of the meeting or by reason of any business being considered which is not comprised in the general particulars stated in the notice.
 - (d) Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a simple majority of the votes cast. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting has a second vote (unless they were appointed under Article 77(c)).
74. The Board of Trustees must meet at least five times in the year.
75. The quorum at meetings of the Board of Trustees is three or one third of the Trustees (rounded up) if that is greater than three.
76. The Trustees may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number but, if their number falls below the quorum, they may only act to increase their number.
77. Meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be chaired by the following, in the order of priority set out below:
- (a) the Chairman if she is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act;
 - (b) any Vice Chairman present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the meeting and willing to act (and if there is more than one Vice Chairman so present and willing the other Trustees present shall decide which of them shall chair the meeting);
 - (c) any other Trustee appointed by the Trustees present.
78. Every vote or action taken by the Board of Trustees or committee or a person acting as a Trustee is valid even though it is later discovered that there was some irregularity in the appointment of one or more of the Trustees or committee members.

79. Subject to the Articles, Trustees participate in a Trustees' meeting, or part of a Trustees' meeting, when:
 - (a) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles; and
 - (b) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.
80. In determining whether Trustees are participating, or present, in a Trustees' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Trustee is or how they communicate with each other (including for example by telephone or other electronic means).
81. If all the Trustees participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.
82. A decision is taken in accordance with this Article 82 when all of the Trustees indicate to each other by any means (including without limitation by electronic means) that they share a common view on a matter.
 - (a) Such a decision may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each Trustee or to which each Trustee has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.
 - (b) A decision which is made in accordance with this Article 82 shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting duly convened and held, provided the following conditions are complied with:
 - (i) approval from each Trustee must be received by one person being either such person as all the Trustees have nominated in advance for that purpose or such other person as volunteers if necessary (“the Recipient”), which person may, for the avoidance of doubt, be one of the Trustees;

- (ii) following receipt of responses from all of the Trustees, the Recipient must communicate to all of the Trustees (by any means) whether the resolution has been formally approved by the Trustees in accordance with this Article 82;
- (iii) the date of the decision shall be the date of the communication from the Recipient confirming formal approval; and
- (iv) the Recipient must prepare a minute of the decision in accordance with Article 86.

 - (b) if the matter concerns the personal financial interests of the Trustee or a person Connected to her, the Trustee may not participate in the discussions, vote or form part of the quorum in relation to the matter.
84. However, Article 83(b) does not apply if the matter to be discussed concerns:
- (a) conferring benefits which are available to all of the beneficiaries of the Federation on the same terms;
 - (b) general issues surrounding trustee indemnity insurance for the Board of Trustees; or

Minutes

86. The Board of Trustees must ensure that proper minutes are kept:
