

WSFWI trip to Lichfield, for three nights, visiting the National Memorial Arboretum and
Black Country Museum.
Monday 28th, Tuesday 29th and Wednesday 30st April

Return travel from Chichester, Worthing, Horsham and Pease Pottage.

Staying at Best Western St George's Hotel, Bird Street, Lichfield.

Travel 28th April to Lichfield. Visit Cathedral, Charles Darwin Museum, Garrick Theatre.

Tuesday 29th April, National Memorial Arboretum, Burton on Trent.

Wednesday 30th May, Black Country Museum, Dudley.

Thursday 1st May, Return to Sussex.

Accommodation: The George Hotel, Lichfield. Bed and Breakfast. Dinner on first evening

Single room: We have 10 allocated

Double or twin room: We have 15 allocated.

Trips: National Memorial Arboretum entrance free. The British site of national remembrance. The 150-acre site is a living, growing tribute remembering those who have served our country.

Option for one hour buggy/land tour £7.50pp. Guided walk £5.50 both pre-bookable.

Café, restaurant, shop and museum.

Black Country Museum entrance £18.25. The Open Air Museum with reconstructed houses, shops and industrial buildings on a 26-acre site tells the story of the how a manufacturing power house developed in the West Midlands at the start of the Industrial Revolution.

The cost per person per double or twin room is: £362 (this includes coach travel, accommodation, breakfast each day, dinner on the first night and entry to the Black Country Museum).

The cost per person in a single room is: £505.

For the remaining two nights there are lots of restaurant choices within walking distance, although you can of course eat at the hotel.

The costs have been calculated on 40 people. Places allocated on a first come first served basis.

Please email Rosemary Hunter rosemaryhunter@wfswi.co.uk to register your interest.

lesleyj@sunny@aol.com